“ Al was a great man and all around good guy to know and work WITH. He was the field Agent's Supervisor. Have a lot of fond and happy memories from detail duties with Al and the Willcox crew back in the day. Al will be mourned and missed by many. He and Ruthy will again be happy together as always. My deepest sympathy and condolences to the Bollman family.

“ Al and Ruth were, no... are so much in love, a love that shone out like a beacon when they were together, that Al wouldn't wait very long to join her. Those of us who know and love them weep in sorrow because we will miss them both. We also weep for joy in knowing they are together in each others arms in our true Home. They are waiting for all of us and I'm sure we'll see their smiling faces when we too return Home. They are joyful together, with no illness or suffering in God's Eternal Love.

Love you both
