Alice Elizabeth "Liz" Moses

October 21, 1940-November 15, 2023

Liz Moses passed away on November 15, 2023, at the age of 83. She was born in California and passed in Tyler, Texas. She was preceded in death by her father, Paul Fowler, mother, Alice Fowler, brother, David Fowler, sister, Joan Hay, and daughter, Elizabeth "Beth" Moses. She is survived by son, Trey Moses and wife, Heather of Tyler, Texas; granddaughter, Sarah Wyrick and husband, Luke of Cold Springs, Texas; grandson, Thomas Moses and wife, Lexi of Tyler, Texas; grandson, Malachi Tolliver of Tyler, Texas and numerous other family and friends.

Liz moved with her family from California to Ralls, Texas, eventually ending up in Willcox, Arizona. Prior to moving to Willcox, she lived in Elfrida, Arizona where she owned a farm. While living in Willcox, she became a successful business owner of Rix's Tavern and AES Laundromat; however, she could not stand to be so far away from her grandchildren. In 2007, she moved to Tyler. Her trip to Texas included numerous Barry Manilow songs and paying for gas in quarters from the laundromat. In Tyler, she was known as Yaya, not only to her grandchildren, but to all who knew her. She will be dearly missed by family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests a donation to Heart-to-Heart Hospice of Tyler or Meals on Wheels of East Texas.

A Memorial will be held on Friday, May 17, 2024, at Rix's Tavern, it will be a come and go event starting at 6:00 pm.
