“ I had the privilege of working with Aline many, many years ago. She was a great mentor and friend that I needed during that point in my life. Earth's loss is Heaven's gain. Condolences to her family--she will be missed by all.

“ Whew! What a lady on every level. And, indeed, her generosity, kindness, & sincere goodness was soooo evident in everything she did & for everyone with whom she shared it. Wanda & I knew Aline in a myriad of ways, including her children/grandchildren/family via school, sports, music, & the Lord Jesus. Our musical connection has a long history & story, but, the Goolsby homestead is reminded daily of sweet Aline because of the Steinway grand piano that resides in our household this very day. It belonged to Aline's mother, Elizabeth. Certainly Aline is arm-in-arm with Mom listening when I sit down to play a few chords, melodies, riffs, grace notes, improvisations, classics, patriotic tributes, hymns. You get the idea. Thank you, Aline---& Elizabeth. We are reassured by Aline herself in the knowledge of where she is now, with whom she is sharing the moment, & the beautiful promise that we will meet again to share in her love & that of God Himself. Bless you, dearest Aline. We love you.
