“ I recently learned that Manny had tragically died at such a young age. He and his grandmother, Marina, attended the Cochise County Historical Society's annual banquet in Douglas after Manny had won top prize in our essay contest. Manny even spoke at the event, receiving a round of applause for his comments and for his and his grandmother's efforts to travel so far to the event. I was honored to sit next to Manny and Marina that day.

Before that, the society's president, Bill Cavaliere, and I were privileged to meet Manny's family for photographs, with Manny holding his prize check for best essay.

I am so sorry for Manny and his family, but I feel blessed to have met all of them.

May Nuestra Madre María, all the angels and saints, comfort you in this trying time. God's Peace and Blessings be with you all!

“ My baby brother was one of the greatest ppl I knew, he was kind hearted & had a loving soul. One thing about manny is he would literally give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. He always wanted others happy. Even when he was struggling with his own, he never failed to make sure others were okay. Not only was he the best person I knew but a loving father, a great brother & an amazing friend. I'll miss my sweet boy for the rest of my life. I'll love you forever. I'll see you later brother give mom love for me as I know she was waiting for you arms wide open at the pearly gates. I love you manny forever. My thunder baby ❤️

“ Manny was such a great young man. Everywhere he saw me, he would say hi and ask how I was doing. The last time I saw him, he introduced me to his beautiful daughter. He was very proud of his little family. RIP, Manny.
