“ Audrey was more a sister than a friend, she was a mentor . Growing up as neighbors going to 4H meetings...we did it all together. I wish i had toldher how much she ment to me. The Martins were family. As were the Smiths and many more. Ill be there Saturday i love you Audrey...forever and always!

Audrey took me horse back riding our freshman year. She was always smiling and laughing. Her smile and laughter will be missed. May her family be strengthened by the love of Christ. Til we see her again...know that she is with you always.
