“ Dear Family of Barbara Gross,

One year at Passover time Barbara invited my husband and I to her home for a Passover meal. We are Baptists, and we went. It was wonderful. There was one other lady there that we did not know, but she was wonderful, too. We ate in the living room. Barbara used her childhood Passover book, and I will never forget the experience. God bless your mom, you as your experience her being inaccessible right now, and all the rest of us.
