“ Bob was a dear, beloved friend from February, 2011 until the date of his death in 2019. I recall a first encounter at the staging lookout in "Garden of the gods" in Arizona with tearful love. He was a very tall; handsome man who commanded respect with his very presence. When attending his military reunions, I learned of his value to survivors under his command. He knew how to make a woman feel every bit a lady. Bob was uniquely special and will be forever missed. With much love, Evelyn
