

Bobbie Jean Jobe

May 31, 1939 - June 20, 2024

Bobbie Jean Jobe (Mahar) went home to the lord on June 20th, 2024 at the age of 85 in Scottsdale Arizona.

Bobbie met her husband, Roland "Joe" Jobe in Eloy Arizona. They fell in love instantly and married just months later. They went on to have three children Carol "Victoria", Danny and Sandra. In the late 50's they moved to Casa Grande Arizona to farm cotton. Then moving west of Tucson to continue farming and raise their children. Later retiring in Willcox Arizona. They were married "50" years.

In addition to being a dedicated loving mother and grandmother, Bobbie loved doing embroidery, singing and going to church. Throughout her entire life, she held an unwavering faith in God, which she shared with those who surrounded her.

Bobbie joins her husband Joe, son Danny and seven siblings in heaven. She is survived by her children Carol "Victoria" Fellers and Sandra DeBusk, ten grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. Bobbie is now joyfully singing with the angels for eternity.

Bobbie will be laid to rest next to her husband Joe with a graveside service to be held Tuesday, June 25th, 2024, 10:00 a.m. at Safford Union Cemetery in

Safford, Arizona

"I will sing of the LORD's great love forever; with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known through all generations."

Psalm 89:1
