“ I met Carry when our children were raising rabbits. Even after the kids stopped raising rabbits our friendship didn't stop. After our family had moved to Missouri, Carry came to visit and we had so much fun going to all the Fleamarkets. When I would come back to visit in CA. Carry would always make sure that I had some place to stay and made me feel like family. Carry was a very special lady and was so talented. She could do just about anything she wanted to. She was great at being a cake decorator to being a seamstress, to crafter, to even being the owner of Elkins Frosty for years. Carry will be missed and loved by all that knew her but I am happy for her that now she will be in no more pain and she will be back with her dad, mom and Bill again. I love you my friend, say hi to my Joe for me until we meet again.

“ I met Carry in the early 90's, when I took my daughter to a 4-H Rabbit meeting. Ashley was 8 or 9, and wanted to raise rabbits, because they were cute! Of course, Carry explained all the details of raising a rabbit, at the end she mentioned it was a fatal auction, Ashley was hysterical. Ashley decided she would do sewing instead.

Carry was a wonderful sewing teacher, Ashley learned so much from Carry. She was always kind, and very patient.

Years later, I met her sweet daughter Ashlee, who is very dear to me. Ashlee, you are such a strong woman. I know how painful it is to loose your Mom, I lost mine when I was 30. You will survive, and continue to make your Mama proud. Of course you will carry her in your heart always! Know that I am here, if you need anything. I love you, Sandy DeValentine
