

Cindy Stinnett

June 14, 1952 - March 3, 2022

Cindy Stinnett of Willcox passed away in Safford on March 3, 2022, at the age of 69. She was born in Ajo, Arizona on June 14, 1952, to H.C. Dooley and Patsy (nee Jensen) Dooley. Cindy worked at Whiting Bros for years before going to work for Cochise County where she retired from the Cochise County Waste Management transfer station in Willcox. She loved to read and enjoyed spending time in the outdoors enjoying her surroundings. Cindy was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Survivors include her husband Henry P. Harrel and her son Hank (Mia) Harrel both of Willcox along with her grandchildren Wesley Harrel and Abby Bailey and her niece Patsy Ann Dooley of Willcox. Her brother David Dooley is also surviving. She was preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Michael, Bruce and Alan and her sisters Carla and Kathy. Memorial Services will be 1:00 pm on Saturday, March 12, 2022, at Westlawn Chapel.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Cindy. Loved to talk to her at the transfer station. She always uplifted my day with her cheer. God Bless you as you adjust to not having her where you could see her. Know she is enjoying Heaven, but here on earth we're all the poorer for not having her here.
