

Colten Kage Varga

June 27, 1996 - November 20, 2025

It is with great sadness we announce the passing of Colten Kage Varga, 29, on November 20, 2025. Colten was born in Lander Wyoming on June 27, 1996.

Colten is survived by his father Dwayne RC Varga, his mother Brooke Bishop, step father Max (Rusty) Bishop, sisters Shianne and Shelbey Varga, brother Aven Varga, nephew Shayden Benjamin, nieces Charolette Huffman and Brytten Varga, grandparents Connie Agnes, Brian Sprague, and Wayne Chamley, uncles Blake Chamley and Brandon (Iron) Sprague, and aunt Breeze Sprague, along with many more cousins aunts and uncles.

Colten worked as a stone mason with his father in Payson Arizona.

Colten was a collector of friends wherever he went and loved spending time in nature, with his family, and with his dog. Colten was a lover of music and enjoyed writing his own lyrics.

A private service will be held for family. As well as a public celebration of life/benefit that will be held at the Oxbow in Payson Az on December 21, 2025 from 2:00-5:00pm. We are asking for donations to be made at his service in lieu of flowers (blankets, coats or jackets, canned goods, toiletries or money). Proceeds will go to family and to the Payson Warming Center which was dear to Colten's heart, and where he lovingly volunteered in his spare time.

“ There are bit enough words to explain how much this hurts and how much you impacted my and our little family's lives. We love you so much more than you'd ever know, Kage. I'm so blessed to have had the time with you I did. You were my true best friend, and I will never stop missing you. Thank you for being so sweet and the best friend I could ever have. I love you, dude.
