“ We are so sorry to hear of Curtis' death. Debbie, please know that we are keeping you and your family in our prayers. Lola and Gene Chapin, Ann, Grant & family and Scott Chapin (a side note: Debbie, in case you don't remember, your dad and I are first cousins and we live in Broken Bow Nebraska)

“ My First Cousin, Once removed, as Curt has explained to me several times, came back into my life in August of 1999. He and Debbie, my parents, and Bunny and Al helped me move my stuff and my two little girls into a townhome in Aurora. For many years after that, we would occasionally get together on Saturdays to see his Dad, Maurice. Bunny, Al, Debbie, and Curt would graciously keep my girls for a night or weekend once to help me out. When Curt became an author, he came to my women's group at my church to do an author's talk. My parents, me and my girls, and Darren, treasured his love, his energy, his talent, his faith. His family has gone through so much, but we have gained so much for having him in our life. Debbie, you will always be a cousin, a friend, and a sister. Love to you and prayers for peace. God bless. Curt, we will always love you.

“ Besides the blessing of our beautiful daughter Faith, one memory that is deeply embedded is the mesmerizing way Curtis played Amazing Grace on the musical saw! I remember people sitting in a Christian Coffee House in Aschaffenburg, Germany, jaws dropped and deeply moved.
