“ Lavena and Lynda, I'm so so sorry and you both know Dan was like a brother all of the years we grew up together and every time we saw each other, nothing changed. I love y'all and many prayers of comfort as you walk the journey of great sorrow. I'm reminded of the scripture to be absent in the body is to be present in the Lord and though he will be missed greatly, we know Dan is whole and I can hear his laughter and see his sweet contagious smile ❤️
