“ So sorry to hear of Dave's passing. He was as good a coach as I ever had in Softball.
But more importantly he was a genuine and caring man who passed those qualities on to his family and his community. Willcox and Arizona will miss him, but we were all better for knowing him. My condolences to the entire Harris family.

He was right! Funny how he remembered families. He was an honorable man. A pillar of our community for eons. They don't make um like that anymore! Gods speed to a great man! Praying for your family

“ A special guy! In 1956 my mother went to the packing house to get some "cheap" meat. Dave tried his best to sell her "prime " beef for a higher price. Told her it was "better" beef! Mother wasted no words telling him that there was no sorry meat, only sorry cooks! And Dave remembered that all these years! Some good memories!!!
Condolences to the family!
