“ I am so sorry to hear of David's passing. My condolences go to all of his family. It was always obvious that he cared so much about all of you. I had the good fortune of working with David at the Amerind Museum. He was much more than a carpenter there. A master craftsman would be a closer description. He was meticulous, creative, detailed oriented, and dependable (even when I could tell he wasn't feeling good). And, he was a good buddy. He seemed to know how to do most everything, from fixing cars to bow hunting (and making tasty javelina stew from his efforts). His interests in the world were wide-ranging and his good mind always made him an interesting person to talk with. I sure wish now that I had been more in contact with him after he last left Tucson. Yes, we're all going to miss him, especially those of you in his family, but we've all been lucky to have had him in our lives.
