“ David has been my hat salesman for many years, often taking time to guide me when my business, HERITAGE HATS was in it's infancy. When he would come into the store we just shoot the breeze and just have a good laugh. Some how, he always convinced me that I needed yet another hat in the store. David has been, and will always be, a part of my business, not only my salesman, my friend, thanks David for being such an inspiration.
