“ I wanted to say something to Dave's family and friends, and especially to Dave's mom, I had to catch my breath so I could speak.

I want you to know that his last days were joyous and happy and he was loved. He was so looking forward to life in Arizona, so excited about his new home. His death is shocking and tragic.

I also want you to know his transformation to the spirit world was as quick as the beat of an Angels' wing, and he was not alone. We were enjoying the beauty of the chiricahua mts.

It has been my privilege to have spent this time with Dave. He is missed.

*Respectfully yours,
Jeannette*
