“ I've known Bambi basically since I was born and I always remember even as a kid being so happy to see her because she had such a kind disposition and always made me feel comfortable and loved. Even in adulthood seeing how she always showed up for my family let alone her own and was the light in the room and the life of the party. So grateful that the last few times I got to see and talk to her she was so happy bright and full of life, she will forever be greatly missed however I am so glad she got to reunite with her beautiful baby Chiquita ☐
