“ I always remember my uncle Donald being busy with different projects at home. When I was a child my parents (Harold and Brigitte Ford) along with my brothers Brian and Mike would travel to my uncle Donald and aunt Nancys home for visits. They lived in Monroe, Washington during this time and always made it special for us to visit. There home in Monroe was situated in the woods and it was always so peaceful and quiet there. They had two German Shepard dogs that guarded their home and always barked when we arrived. We would enjoy picnics in the summer and good meals for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Uncle Donald and my dad could talk for hours and they always enjoyed their conversations. These memories don't seem that long ago but they actually were at least 40 years ago. Rest in Peace uncle Donald. You'll be truly missed. Daniela and family.
