“ I met her in 1989 at the U.S.Forest service Goldfield site she was a volunteer weekend warrior picking up trash cleaning up after a messy week end on the lower salt river she was a hard worker and when I was hired full-time on the Mesa Ranger District I had to help her out til we hired full engine crews,We were about the same age and with her pretty smile I could see us becoming go I d friends I was divorced but kept my distance as not fo be obvious that I really liked her summer 89 was a busy fire season for us then 90,to make it short we reunited 2012 April after that we never left each other's side we married and I said I would love her for the rest of her life MI e too. That's just a short bit in our life
