

Dorothy Jeanette Eilers

March 21, 1929 - December 4, 2012

Dorothy Eilers of Willcox died December 4, 2012 at the age of 83. She was born in Belleville, Illinois on March 21, 1929 to John and Norvella (Borsch) Eilers. Dorothy was a retired Certified Nursing Assistant, served as a missionary on the Apache Indian Reservation through out South East Arizona for 10 years. She was the activity director for the Quibiri Mission in Benson for several years, was an active Sunday School teacher, Brownie leader and a member of the Assembly of God Church. Survivors include her daughter Sharon (Mike) Hudson of Willcox and her son Ron Oakes of Tucson. Also surviving is her sister Ruth Eschenfelder and brother Donald Eilers both of Belleville, IL along with her two grandchildren Erick and David Hudson, and her 5 great grandchildren Joshua, Izabel, Mariah, Vanessa and Hannah. Memorial services will be at the New Life Fellowship Church (formerly the Assembly of God) on Sunday, December 9, 2012 at 3:00 p.m. Services entrusted to Westlawn Chapel, Mortuary and Crematory in Willcox, AZ.

Previous Events

Memorial

DEC 9. 3:00 PM (MT)

First Assembly of God
Corner of Cochise & Stewart
Willcox, AZ 85643

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy Jeanette Eilers

January 30, 2023 at 12:50 AM

“ Terri Mueller sent a virtual gift in memory of Dorothy Jeanette Eilers

Terri Mueller - December 12, 2012 at 05:09 PM