“ I met Dorothy about 17 years ago when I worked at the Elsie Hogan Library. She would come in regularly and chat as she picked up her favorite books. I remember she liked J.A. Jance a lot. I remember her as a lovely lady who loved talking about her family. One thing she would say a lot that I loved to hear was "if the Lord's willin and the creek don't rise." I pray for comfort for her family through this difficult time. I'm thankful for the experience of knowing Dorothy and will miss her.

“ I married Dorthys nephew, JL Kinnaird, and met Dorthey only a couple of times, but I have heard many stories from JL. He loved her and always remembers how nice she was to him in his earlier days. We will always remember her with love in our hearts. Let the love and memories keep her alive in your hearts. Love and prayers to each of the family during this time of loss.
