

Earnestine Henderson

January 11, 1941 - April 12, 2015

Earnestine Henderson was born January 11, 1941. She moved to Willcox, Arizona as a young child, and she remained a Willcox resident for the rest of her life. Throughout the years Earnestine became known in the community as a loving mother, a caring grandmother, and as an individual who was deeply interested in the well-being of those around her.

Earnestine had a strong connection with the outdoors. Some of her happiest times were when she was fishing with family, hiking with friends through the mountains, and camping. She had a reputation as a cook that was second to none.

Of all of the activity she enjoyed, the most important activity in Earnestine's life was that of teaching others about the wonderful hope for the future found in the Bible. It was this hope, and the enjoyment she received from sharing this hope with others, that allowed Earnestine to maintain her joy while dealing with the challenges presented by cancer.

Earnestine fell asleep in death on Sunday April 12, 2015. She is survived by her children Barbara, Debbie, Billy, Pam, Marcia, Charles, and Kirby as well as by grandchildren.

Her children and grandchildren eagerly wait for the day when they will see

Earnestine again; young and full of energy in God's in new world. (Rev 21:3, 4)
