Edith Mae Lester

December 24, 1921 – August 30, 2017

Edith Mae Lester, a long time Willcox resident, passed away peacefully on August 30, 2017 in Tucson Arizona. She was born in 1921 in Hickory, Kentucky. In 1943, she married Alfred Lester and they made their way across country to Willcox where they lived for over 50 years. She was a very active member of First Southern Baptist Church here in Willcox for the entire time she lived here.

Edith was preceded in death by her husband Alfred Lester and by her youngest son Larry “Cricket” Lester. She is survived by her son Lee Lester, her daughter LaRae Williams, eight grandchildren, Lauren (Dennis) Abbl, Sydney (Carlos) Ballesteros, Brisa Lester, Bryan Lester, Darrin Wood, DeeDee (Bill) Thornberry and Robin (Jon) Thomas and Monique Gutierrez. She has 16 great grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren as well as a large extended family that loved her greatly. Throughout her life, “Granny” touched the lives of many and she will be greatly missed.

Graveside services will be held at Sunset Cemetery on Saturday, September 9th at 2:00 PM.
