

Elizabeth "Beth" Moses

November 27, 1960 - July 26, 2019

Elizabeth "Beth" Moses born November 27, 1960 passed from this life on July 26, 2019. Beth was born to Smokey and Liz Moses in Lubbock, Texas. Beth is preceded in death by her father Smokey Moses. She is survived by her mother Liz Moses of Tyler, Texas; brother Trey Moses of Tyler, Texas; niece and nephew Sarah and Thomas Moses both of Tyler, Texas; and partner Shannon Simpson of Albany, New York. Beth is also survived by her aunts Bettye Noble and Ann Kinney and numerous friends. Beth and her family moved to Arizona at the age of 4 where she went to school and graduated from Willcox High School. From there she moved to Phoenix and continued her schooling. After Phoenix, she moved to Tucson where she went to further her education. She ultimately ended with her nursing degree. Beth was an excellent nurse working with pediatric cancer patients as well as HIV patients. She loved being a nurse and had a great calling and a huge heart for nursing. Beth would eventually move to Albany, New York where she lived until the time of her death. There she met Shannon and they made a life together. Beth will be missed by her family and friends and the many lives she touched. Beth in her own way was a "class act". There will be a gathering of family and friends at Union Public House in Tucson, 4340 N. Campbell Ave. on August 15 at 6 pm. In lieu of flowers please contribute to Children Miracle Network of Arizona at tmcaz.childrensmiraclenetworkhospitals.org or any Children Miracle Network of your choice.

“ Love Is Shared.

*Love is shared , it is never owned
Love, it cannot be confined.
Love is a gift for all to receive
Love is a precious find.
Love is the silence of the snowflakes fall
Love covers the Earth and sky
Love has no answers ever to give
Love only tells us why
Love is truth, it cannot lie
Love is meant to be a breath
Love is shared in birth and life
Love is even shared in death
Love is awake, love never sleeps
Love is the sunrise in your soul
Love is the night sky with stars that illuminate
Love is in control
Love is magnified when two will share
Love ignites into a flame
Love exposes its true origin
Love even has a name
Love is endless like time itself
Love lives and never dies
Love is the whisper of a flowers beauty
Love is the wind within its sighs
Love is the laughter of the skies up above
Love are the tears that are called rain
Love is the embrace of all the wonders
Love is your comfort in all your pain
Love is shared, it is never owned
Love is ocean, sky and sod
Love owns all that we possess
Love is the name of God.
By his vessel,
Joe Nuzzo*
