“ During my summer trips to the AZ ranch as a kid, I remember all of us piling into the back of his truck so he could take us to go get ice-cream. I remember telling people that he was my favorite uncle for doing that. :) Tio Ernest, you will be missed. - Aurgoria Johnson

“ Ernest, my little brother who always was there when we needed a hand with projects. You were such a hard-working person and you would work all day if you needed to. You loved to be with your family and friends and loved to make little jokes. I was blessed to have spent the two Texas trips with you earlier this year. I will miss you coming by my house and at family gatherings. I love you so much. Until we meet again, hugs and kisses, Ernest.

I am still so sad. I miss you so much. You would always visit mom and dad on weekends and help them with whatever it was they needed. That is how you honored your parents. I know they miss you so much too. I look around my house and see the things you helped us with-so many reminders. I know I will see you again but it's just not soon enough. I love you so much, hermanito!

My love and prayers to all of Ernie's family. What a gentle, kind, friend he was to us. He was such a special man who helped so many in need. His loss to us hurts deeply, but I know he is in Heaven where he will not suffer the hurts of this world! I will never forget him, and share his loss with all of you who lost him way too soon. My love and sympathy to all how knew and loved him as we did!
