“ My prayers are with your family in their time of need it is hard losing a wife and a mother... just know she is in a better place and that she walks beside you everyday

“ I have been looking for Lynn for years....I was sad to find that I am a little too late. We grew up together - she and I went back and forth from our houses in St. David. She was always a kind heart and I wanted to touch base with her again. I'm glad she has a family who loves and cares for her.

“ Lynn was very dear to me. I loved her so much that I named my first daughter after her. We grew up together and had many happy shared memories together. She knew the true love of Jesus and shared it with everyone every day. She knew no strangers and would help anyone whether she knew them or not. She knew how to love everyone. I will miss her a lot but I know she is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She will suffer no more. I love her and will miss her very much.

“ Lynn was my big sister and had the most beautiful kindest spirit of anyone I know. She was the best big sister to have and she will surely be missed. This last year was especially hard on her as she was in and out the hospital but now she does not have to suffer anymore and I know she is with her Lord!! She has surely earned her wings! I will miss you Lynn!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ Lynn was the most loving person I know. Everyone who met her cared for her and she cared for them. The best way to honor her memory would be to come to her funeral on January 11, 2014 at Victory Baptist Church located at the southwest corner of Bowie street and Grant Ave. Willcox, AZ., and take part in the celebration/graduation of her life and her passing into heaven.

Lynn loved the Lord Jesus. She was saved and knew she was heaven bound. So this really is not a time to mourn but to remember her love and caring and understand that Lynn is alive today walking the streets of gold in heaven with Jesus.

I didn't know Lynn well but she was kind to me when we occasionally were both at World Wide Hobbies. Her main concern was always for the care and happiness of her family. She will be missed.

I left a note earlier - I have been looking for Lynn for years - we used to live across the street from her in St. David. We would go back and forth to each other's houses often. I have tried to locate her and now it looks like I'm too late. It's good to know that she has a family and friends who love her.
