“ I will always remember going to Iowa to visit Herb and Florence. Sometimes Gertie would be there. We had so much fun on their farm and also the relatives in Minnesota. Us city kids could experience life on a farm. Florence always had a smile and a lecture about life. Janice (Magee) Altomare

“ I used to Stay with Florence and Herbs during the summer in my junior and senior years. I learned many of lifes lessions through the many conversations with Florence. She knew motivation without pain. She taught me to clean a bathroom and to make a bed everyday. She was an awesome aunt. You have my condolences. Ron Reisdorfer

“ Florence is my hero, Never afraid to experience life's adventures anytime it presented itself. BLESSED by the fact she knew how to make me comfortable when ever I was near. Oh, my greatest regret is I never took the opportunity to visit the family in AZ. Although she extended the invitation many, many times! When you visited my dad during his final months, it was especially great to learn what a special family tree we came from.. Thanks and Many blessings to those who cared and looked after her special needs in her final earthly days.

“ My mother (Sally Pieper Sandwick) described Aunt Florence as a force of nature. Keep your promise and tell Herb and Romaine all about Alaska! How very blessed I am to have loved someone I can miss so much.

“ I fondly remember Aunt Florence's visits to Minnesota. I could sit for hours listening to her tell stories of living thru the depression and working on the farm. She was so captivating.

In addition to her wonderful story telling, Aunt Florence was also a bit of a performer. She never missed a chance to show off her flexibility - even during her senior years. She used to stand on a step stool and show how she could (with her knees straight) bend down and not only touch her toes, but bypass them and touch the floor. Even now.... it still amazes me.

Love & hugs to you Aunt Florence. Say "hello" to dad for me!
