“ If you have never had the opportunity) ... mm (Roman typed this while I was away from my laptop). (to have a Mother - in - Law but were blessed enough to know this lovely lady she was the best. She even on her death bed was still worrying about someone else. Go rest she would say. You work too hard. She always had something to give the biggest thing was LOVE. I hope and pray that you all know what I am talking about because if you do you are blessed. We lost one great Lady on earth and Heaven has gained one awesome lady. She is in GREAT hands. LOVE you mom Gloria

“ I am sorry for your loss. Sr. Kika, as I enjoyed calling her, was a part of my life and shared many great times with her and Cuco, her husband. Many times, we had the pleasure of them coming over for dinner at Mom and Dad's house and I recall the laughter and the delight of so many evenings. To the sons and daughters of Sr. Kika, I send my condolences and my hugs and pray that God always look after her. My last conversation with her was at my Mom's funeral and will recall the lovely thoughts and prayers she had for her. May God bless you all and thank you for sharing her with my family.
