“ Pancho was my mother's uncle and visits to our home were consistent but spread out throughout our lives . Pancho was fun and full of energy and loved to talk about his many adventures and travels , he was a great leather worker and was also great at Upholstery , he made many leather Back packs and Satchels with all the bells and whistles , he was loved by many and made friends every where he went , he was very close to us and he will be missed dearly !!! My favorite uncle I love you ❤️ ..
