“ My Grandfather Fred Malone, As long as i can remember my grandfather was available to me even when i was in boot camp or over seas. He would always tell me that i was good enough, smart enough, to keep pushing and most importantly he would tell me to pull my head out of my butt. I had the oppertunity to spend some time with him when he was out and about and we talked about everything and even swapped some sea stories. Almost monthly i recieved a letter from him that i always told him i would send back. He told me not to worry about it and to take care of me and my misses how proud he was of us and to give her a little squeeze just from him! I miss him and i miss hearing say or seeing that he wrote "I love you Son".
