“ I remember how very sweet Harold was when I first met him and the special moments we shared together especially this last year together just me and him. He loved having people in his life and he loved being able to help people even people that he didn't really even know. He was a very kind and loving man to everyone he knew. Thank you Harold for sharing your life with me thru your stories and the time we spent together and will have you in my heart and thoughts forever. Love Deana
