

Ignacio Nash Moreno

September 1, 1944 - November 14, 2017

Ignacio “Nash” Moreno, passed away in Tucson, AZ on Nov. 14th, 2017 at the VA Hospital of Southern Arizona. He was born in Cotulla, Texas to Victor and Lilia (Benavidez) Moreno on September 1st, 1944. Nash was raised by his grandparents, Ignacio and Carlotta Moreno. During the Vietnam War, he served in the US Navy as a radio operator. He will be remembered as an avid storyteller and one who sought out treasures in the remote areas wherever he lived, especially with his best friend, George. He had a gift for finding the most precious people in the area to surround him. Surviving are his daughter, Becky Davis and son Brian (Heidi) Moreno. He had three grandchildren Alicia Davis, Larissa and David (Abby) Moreno and three great grandchildren (Roxy, Josh, and Jordyn). Also surviving are his sister Gloria Perez, Robert Moreno, Carlotta Wilson and Irma (Ramiro) Rodriguez. He will be missed by his large family and was fondly called “Uncle Nash” by many. Arrangements include a military service held on Friday, December 8th at the Marion National Cemetery beginning at 9:00 am. Friends and family are invited to his celebration of life held at Sugar Grove Church of God, 5019 E 500 S in Churubusco, In 46723 from 12:00-4:00. Condolences may be expressed through donations to: Latinos Counts in memory of Nash Moreno.

Cemetery Details

Marion National Cemetery

1700 E. 38th Street
Marion, IN 46952

Tribute Wall

“ Ignacio Nash Moreno

January 30, 2023 at 12:50 AM

“ We (Roger and Helga Graham) shared a two level duplex with Nash and Betty in Fort Wayne, Indiana during 1963-1966. We enjoyed their companionship. It was an old house with open heating registers which we would often use for internal communication in lieu of the telephone. It was much fun and I have very fond memories.

*Roger and Ann Graham
La Mesa, California*

Roger Graham - December 27, 2017 at 09:50 PM