“ He and Arlene were 2 of the finest Arizonans I ever met. I had the opportunity to stay out on their ranch many years ago. It's something I have never forgotten. They are 2 people I'll never forget.

“ I've known Jack since 1987 when we moved to Arizona. He was a quiet, humble man, but someone you would never forget. I loved his huge grin. I can still picture it in my mind. Jack will be dearly missed here in the Sierra Vista church. He was deeply committed to God. My heartfelt condolences to Jack's family. You all are in my prayers.
