“ my names is

James bradley, Red as the name we knew him by was a dear friend. I worked with James on the forest service. he ran a d-8 for the forest service and i was his helper. i would greases the dozer, go get fuel and just be around while he was building dirt tanks for ranchers around ft, Wachooka (sic) back in 1957. I had gone to valley union hi school at Elfrida along with Larry K. and norman K. and others from up in the valley. James K. was one tough little fellow. We would leg wrestle and he would
