

Jane D. Ferguson

January 21, 1956 - December 2, 2021

Jane Douglas Ferguson passed away at her home near Tombstone on December 2, 2021, at the age of 65. She was born in Sevierville, Tennessee on January 21, 1956, to Douglas James Ferguson and Ruth (nee Wilson) Ferguson. Jane was Master Ceramic Artist, and had her ceramics displayed in Galleries across the country. Jane attended numerous craft fairs. She loved to hike and camp especially in the Great Smokey Mountains. On July 15, 2006, in Tombstone she married Philip Korte who survives her. Jane is also survived by her sons Dylan Gamza of Tennessee and Dustin Gamza of Washington, D C, along with her sisters Ardith Ferguson of Colorado and Sarah George of Mexico. Her parents preceded her in death. No services are scheduled at this time.

Tribute Wall

“ Jane D. Ferguson

January 30, 2023 at 12:50 AM

“ Just before Jane passed Pirate and I took a weekend trip to the white mountains with Phil and Jane so very blessed we had this time and made some new memories. I will miss my sweet friend. Until we meet again!

corinehamm4@gmail.com - December 30, 2021 at 11:00 AM

“ Jane and I never had an opportunity to meet in person, but we shared many commonalities. How close we came to meeting when I was in Arizona, especially the times I was either in Tombstone or close by. My heart goes out to Phil for this immense, painful loss. I always enjoyed talking to Jane whenever she felt well enough to. Phil, I cannot adequately convey the sorrow that I feel because of her loss. Lord, bless and comfort Phil and their family over their loss of Jame. I pray that they feel your comfort and presence. In Jesus's name, Amen.

Myra Marcum - December 04, 2021 at 03:00 PM