My sympathy to your family. Jean was like the hub on your family's wheel. She was so proud of your family and the family business. It would take the whole page to list all the good adjectives that describe her, such a nice, good, smart "lady" and the list goes on. It would make her happy for you all to follow in her footsteps!

“ Her picture looks just as when I saw her last. I'm so sorry for your loss, and I know you will miss her dreadfully. She was a strong lady and so proud of her family and her heritage. Jim Roy called me and was telling about all the kids and grand kids, and it seems just yesterday we all together and the kids were so small and now;in a blink, they have all grown up. Sincerely, and with much love for your family, Sarah Gammon Black “ Jean reached out. She helped me feel like I was family, as we both were "Apple Ladies". I'll miss her smile and friendliness.

“ The Watcher

She always leaned to watch us,

*Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer, by the gate.*

*And though we mocked her tenderly,
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe
Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us-
She never could forget!
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
Waiting 'til we come to her,
Anxious if we are late-
Watching from Heavens window,
Leaning from Heavens gate.*

“ David, our prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time. I just wanted to let you know I enjoyed running into your mom in town. We usually saw each other at the post office and she was always so nice to me and we would visit a minute. She always seemed genuinely interested in what was going on with us and not just making conversation. I will miss seeing her. I'm so sorry for your loss. Kelly (Gallagher) Owen “ Jeanie was so generous and gracious, always doing for people but not expecting anything in return. She was sweet and open to the end of this earthly walk. I can only aspire to be as spiritual and giving as she was. She will be sorely missed, but she is whole again in Heaven and reaping her reward. God bless you, Joe, and all the family. Thank you for being so kind to me.

“ Aunt Jean was the model of a godly woman. She was a second mother to me. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone. She was kind, giving, thoughtful, and loving, she made a heck of a good peach or apricot cobbler and she loved to sing in church. She will be missed by many of us here and will be welcomed by many who loved her in heaven. Sing in heaven Aunt Jean and save me a place right next to you in the choir when I get there. I love you dearly and will miss you greatly.
