

Jerry Sanborn

January 7, 1943 - November 12, 2025

Jerold "Jerry" Sanborn, 82, of Willcox, AZ passed away on November 12th, 2025, at his home in Willcox.

A celebration of life will be at 2:00 p.m. on January 2nd at Pinal County Cowboy Church in Casa Grande, AZ. Jerry was laid to rest in the City of Mesa cemetery next to his beloved wife Darlene and son Wade in a private service. Jerry was born in Mesa, Arizona to Pryor and Marvalene Sanborn on January 7th, 1943. He married Darlene Kay Sanborn on April 13, 1964, in Lordsburg, NM. Together they raised three children in Bagdad, Arizona and Gilbert, Arizona. Jerry was skilled in many areas. He loved working cattle but spent most of his working years fabricating and welding in the mines in Bagdad, Sahuarita and Miami. Upon retirement, Jerry was a truck driver and then as he had more time, he started to do leatherwork again, a skill he learned while attending high school in Mesa. He loved making tack for the grandkids and did some awards for Junior rodeos too. His swivel knife artwork was beautiful. Jerry is survived by his son Howdy (Amy) Sanborn and grand-children Kelsey (JD) Lutjen-Trehane, Sherrick Sanborn and Bridger Sanborn.

He is preceded in death by his beloved wife Darlene and children Wade Sanborn and Lisa Lutjen and younger brother Mike.

In Lieu of flowers, please send memorials to Arizona High school rodeo association, or Parkinson's, Alzheimer's, muscular dystrophy or breast cancer associations.
