“ Now we lay his body to rest.

This earthly life was only a test.....

We pray the Lord his soul to keep....

“ Jim is possibly the most gentle man I have ever known. His kindness is a legend to those of us who associated with Jim, Joyce, Jennifer and the family here in North Richland Hills, Texas. He was a tower of strength for all who have known him. And he was always supported by his true love and best friend, Joyce. May your hearts be mended in the hope of Resurrection and Life Eternal. Your faith and love were a joy to behold yesterday.

“ Joyce ... our love and prayers are with you and your family at this time. Jim, as cuzins growing up in Loma and Grand Junction, CO I will always remember you guys coming to our house on vacation and us going to yours in Cheyenne ... riding horses, driving the convertible over the many hills behind your house, going to Cheyenne Frontier Days, picnics, going to the State Capitol, plus so much more! And when you and Joyce were newly weds, as were Charles and I, sharing fun times together at each of our homes in Aurora, CO -- we always seemed to have time for each other in those days. Thanks for the many memories. You are now a twinkling star as we look to the heavens. Love Charles & Helen ("Tootsie")

“ I first met Jim and his family in Aurora, CO when they began their 'investigation' of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. They liked what they found and stayed to join the church, become good friends and strong, stalwart members. It was my great privilege to serve with Jim in a bishopric. He was always cheerful, always had a strong spirit and good ideas of how to accomplish the work he had been called to do. It was easy to love Jim and Joyce and their family. They were always a wonderful addition to anything and anyplace they went.

“ Dear Joyce and All of Your Family,

It has been a great journey of knowing Jim for the past 58 years, or so, and I'm so sorry at the time of his passing. He certainly battled to regain his health... he loved you all so very much; but it was not to be.

I've got so many great memories of the things we did together, over the years.... getting acquainted in the sixth grade, going all through junior high school, and high school, and going off to college together, in Greeley, Colorado!

Joyce has asked me to share some of those memories with you, and I will be e-mailing her several of those, hoping that you'll enjoy imagining him in very interesting situations.

We had such a great time at our 50-th high school reunion, in Cheyenne, just a few years ago. It was great seeing him and all of our fellow graduates at that event!

Be assured that our thoughts and prayers are with you all, and that we'll continue praying for you!

*Sincerely,
Byron and Marye Jane Comin

“ Grandpa- This is so surreal to me you have always been there for me no matter what, I love you and miss you so much, this is one of the hardest things for me to go through. I am so glad that you are free to do whatever it is you please now but i really wanted to be selfish and keep you here with me. You are more than a grandpa to me you were my friend and still are. I will miss your smiling face and the support you gave. I will miss us watching twilight and wedding shows. It breaks my heart that you don't get to help me plan my wedding (even though i am no where near that) But it was always something i looked forward to. You helped me go for my dreams and it saddens me that i don't get to cook and bake for you. We had so many great times together and i wish that there were more. I love you so much i hope that you are shopping and eating and running around on roller coasters. I miss you. I love you ALWAYS and FOREVER. Love your princess Jenise Marie <3

“ Bishop Jim Richmond was our Bishop shortly after we were married and moved to Texas for our first job and career move. We spent 10 years in North Richland Hills, and for many of those years he was a trusted and loved leader to us. He helped a young couple learn some vital lessons about early marriage and patience. He stood in the circle with the blessing of early family daughters. He cried with us when we lost one as well. He loved us without judgment.

Serving with him in a Bishopric was a lesson in Christlike love and sacrifice. Every week our leadership meetings would be about the people. A lesson I have not forgotten, and one I cherish more than ever now. I am in his debt. He showered everyone he met with a smile and a warm welcome. He never showed the stresses of his own life, he only strived to be more like the savior we all desire to be more like.

He spoke so lovingly of his wife and children. Always believing in them. Always there for them. I admired his ability to love.

He....is a great man, and always will be.

“ Almost 11 years ago, Jim did the baby blessing for my youngest daughter. Shortly thereafter, he & Joyce moved off to Arizona & we lost contact. But I've never forgotten his sweet spirit and I truly cherish the years we had him in our lives. You will be missed, Jim. Joyce, you are in our prayers.

“ I know that my Dad will be the first one to welcome me to heaven when it is my time to go. But boy how I miss him now. My Dad is my hero, he was my guiding light in my dark times. He was my friend, my shopping buddy, he was who I turned to when I didn't know the answer. I am so thankful for the example he showed me and my family. I couldn't have asked for a more loving, caring, supportive grandpa to my children. Dad thank you so much for showing so much love to my mom. I know we will be together again, man it doesn't make the hurt of you being gone go away. I miss you. But I hold on to the blessing of having you in my life for as long as I did. I am so lucky to have you for my dad. I love you Dad.

“ His spirit lives on and always will. Tlmes he laughed, gave advice, or just listened echo in the memories of those whose lives he touched. And in being so remembered, his legacy will live on. May it comfort us to know that death cannot diminish the important ways our father touched our lives, that grief cannot take away the good times we shared, that sorrow will fade in time.....but memories remain forever. “ Life.....so fragile, Loss....so sudden, Heart....so broken,...in the wake of such a loss, we are haunted by things we dont, and may never understand. Yet the solace we seek may not come from answers. So we look for comfort in the belief of love's everlasting connection. May that love lift you and hold you close, and give you peace.
