“ I am saddened to learn of Joan's death; she was a wonderful lady who helped so many friends in times good and bad. Her personality sparkled and lit up any room she entered. Joan and Bert invited me into their home for many wonderful dinners when I was in the process of moving my belongs from my Cochise home to Oak Harbor, Washington. I spent five weeks in Arizona by myself packing, conducting estate sales and stressing each day. Joan and Bert came to my rescue almost daily and I was grateful for their friendship. I will always remember her cheerful ways.

*Sincerely,
Gloria Johnson*

“ For those inquiring about the memorial service, due to circumstances beyond control, the service has been postponed. At this time, we are unsure when the ceremony will be, but it will likely be towards the middle of February or beginning of March.

We will try to provide at least three weeks notice, once a date has been set.

Thank you for your thoughts and prayers during this time.

“ This summer we went and visited Mom & Dad and I asked Mom to teach me how to make her chocolate Chip cookies. (They are the best) Anyways, she was so funny, no measuring. "Put 2 sticks of butter in the bowl mix in some sugar, white sugar first no a little bit more, now some brown sugar add 2 eggs. Add the vanilla. Ok, now mix the flour, salt and baking soda together. Now begin mixing the 2 together and blend in the choolate chips. Bake in the oven." After we were finished and we began the taste test she informed me to much flour..... It was such a funny time. Her cookies are the best! I must practice them. :)
