“ I remember when you and Jolene were about 4 years old and Aunt Grace make these two cakes that looked like princess dolls. One had a green dress on and one was in pink. You were so thrilled and in awe that a huge doll was actually a birthday cake. I miss and love you little sis and hope your looking down on us with Chase wrapped in your arms.

“ Remembering the last time we were together - at mom and dad's for reunion. We decided to make a quick grocery run. As usual, my directionally challenged self took a wrong turn and what was supposed to be a quick 15 minute trip ended up a 1 1-2 hr wander through backroads of New Hampshire. It was a wonderful time catching up with each other about our families- hopes and dreams for our kids ... Really just run of the mill talk and laughs. I really appreciate that we had that time together - just the two of us. I miss you. Love you always, Sheri

“ Joanne was and always be my best friend we had some great times when we worked at the Lutheran home together!! The memory that stands out today is Joanne and I had gone outside into the courtyard it was a hot summer night but those who know the LHS it was cooler outside than in!! While we were sitting there Joanne looked up into the sky and said look Theresa it's the stairway to Heaven!! I have to agree with Joanne it really did look like the stairway to heaven! It was beautiful!! I do believe in my heart and soul that Joanne walked up those stairs!!!! I love and miss you Joanne!!! You will always be in my heart!!! And like you said to me when you moved to Arizona it's not goodbye it's see ya later!!!!❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Joanne there are so many memories. I will always remember the day we went to The Xmas Tree Shop with your sister Betty Lou. I was way across the store and she yells my name - I turned to look and she had on the little kids hat...It was so funny and we had such a good time that day..We went back to the store on another day and I bought the hat and mailed it to her....We love you and will never forget you.
