

Joe K. Briggs

October 18, 1937 - June 15, 2020

Joe K. Briggs of Willcox, Arizona died 15 June, 2020 in Tucson, Arizona at the age of 82, with the loving support of his wife Maria Sayers-Briggs and his caregivers who were vital part of his excellent care till the very end; Sandra Durazo; Patricia Q. Barron, and Maria (Lupita) Moreno. Joe was born in Lubbock, Texas on October 18, 1937 to Hinds and Alice Marie Briggs. He had two brothers: Don and Ronnie. Both his parents and brothers preceded him in death. His favorite sports were hunting and fishing. Joe was recognized for his 50th year as a Mason (a very high and distinguished honor). Joe met Jean Gammon and they were married August 31, 1957. In 1964, they moved to Willcox, Arizona, where they raised three children: Melissa, Melinda, and Dave. As a team, Joe and Jean successfully operated a 500-acre apple orchard in Willcox, Arizona for 52 years. Jean went on to meet her Creator on December 15, 2013. They were married for 57 1/2 years. Joe was one of the first to start an organic orchard in 1968 and then started commercial growing in 1978. He later partnered with his daughter Melissa and son-in-law Lance Eggers, which became Briggs-Eggers Orchard. Joe is survived by his children Melissa (Lance) Eggers of Willcox, Melinda (Fred) Andrews of Kendal, Ont., Canada, Dave (Sue) Briggs of Scottsdale, Arizona, and his grandchildren: Janelle, Daniel, and Stephanie Andrews, Noah, Nate, and Ethan Briggs. Joe remarried on June 27, 2015 to Maria C. Sayers. They were married for 5 years. Joe was cherished by Maria's daughter Christy (John) Utz and their children Grace, Sienna, and Jack Utz. Contributions may be made in Joe's name to J-6 Church of Christ, 552 J-Six Ranch Rd., Benson, AZ 86702.
