

John H. Gehrke

December 8, 1928 - May 30, 2018

John H. Gehrke of Willcox died in Sierra Vista on May 30, 2018 at the age of 89. He was born in Centuria, Wisconsin on December 8, 1928 to William and Elsie Stone Gehrke. He moved to Willcox in 2005 from Missoula, Montana. He served in the United States Army during the Korean War, earned two battle stars, two service ribbons and turned down a bronze star so it wouldn't be put in his hometown paper and worry his parents. John was a retired Electrical Warehouse Supervisor. He was a member of Harvest Ministries in Willcox and the American Legion. John was an avid woodworker and his greatest hobby was building wooden toys. Survivors include his children; Lynn M. Tryon, Diane V. Jennings, Janet M. Mogus and Debra Joy Hood along with 10 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren. Preceding him in death was his wife Lora on April 8, 2017. Graveside services will 3:00 pm on Friday, June 22, 2018 at Western Montana State Veterans Cemetery in Missoula, Montana. You may express condolences at www.westlawnchapelmortuary.com Arrangements entrusted to Westlawn Chapel, Mortuary and Crematory of Willcox, Arizona

Tribute Wall

“ John H. Gehrke

January 30, 2023 at 12:50 AM

“ Betsy Ajeman lit a candle in memory of John H. Gehrke

Betsy Ajeman - May 31, 2018 at 09:15 AM