“ I remember when I was a kid in Hayden Arizona and he worked for the city there. Sometimes in the summer he drove the water truck that wet the road so the truck with brush would clean up after. The kids would run after the truck yelling his nickname PIn ! Pin not like a safety pin ,in Spanish the letter I makes the sound of a long e does in English, so the pronunciation would be PEEN.. He would let the water flow out and wet all the kids! They loved it during the summer heat ! I miss my Uncle 😭
