“ papa Joe as my grandkids called him, Dad as I and Loida called him was a great man and friend. I always looked forward to coming down and sitting there on the deck or in the kitchen or living room and talking and laughing about the old days him and mom had together. He would always give me his advise on things and it was always a good way too go. We could never go home without trying his stew that he made ---THE WORLD IS A LESSER PLACE NOW THAT JOE IS GONE, BUT I KNOW HE IS WITH GOD AND THE ANGELS AND HEAVEN IS A BETTER PLACE WITH HIS PRESENCE THERE. I will miss him everyday till we meet again
