

Joseph L.T. Aiman Jr.

August 11, 1940 - September 5, 2013

Joseph L.T. Aiman, Jr., of Willcox, Arizona died September 5, 2013 at his home. Joe was born in Abington, PA on August 11, 1940. Raised in Reading, 50 miles N.W. of Philly. He graduated from Muhlenberg High School in 1958. He leaves behind sons and daughters: Dennis (51), Donald (49), Melissa (45), Jennifer (40) and Joe the 3rd (36) and 8 grandchildren. Joe also leaves behind his wife Delah (Dee) and 5 step-children and 8 step-grandchildren. Joe enjoyed working with computers for 41 years. In 1971 he began his life long passion for preaching and he became a Licensed Supply Pastor. His shepherding lasted until 2012, at Faith Bible Church in Willcox. Joe was vice president for 5 years with the Willcox Ministerial Assoc. For his free time, Joe enjoyed baseball: Philly's, D'Backs and Cubbies. Doing counted cross stitch (2nd place for Gettysburg) cross word puzzles, staying connected with family and friends on the web and especially playing chicken foot (w/domino's) with Dee and friends. Joe's family and friends are comforted by his peaceful passing remembering his frequent smiles and hearty laugh; but he will be greatly missed. Contributions may be made in his name to the Charles Wm Leighton Jr. Hospice, P.O. Box 115, Willcox, AZ 85644. Memorial services will be 10:30 A.M. on Wednesday, September 18, 2013 at the Willcox United Methodist Church. “ I love you dad. I will miss you and our talks about our love of counted cross stitch. The lord's prayer counted cross stitch the one that you are standing by in the picture was a joy for me to make for you and I hope you had years of enjoying looking at it where ever you hung it. Please know I will finish your project with pride and will pass it a long to Dee when it is done.

“ Dee,
So sorry to hear about your loss. I rode Fritz Ammarell's school bus as I lived on River Road not far from Joe. We were both "A's", Amendola, so we were lined up together on special occasions. Having lost my husband, Ray, a little more than a year ago I can only imagine what you are going through.

“ Dee & Family, we are so sorry to hear of your loss. It is difficult to accept that someone that's been part of your life for so long will no longer be there. However, you have all the beautiful memories of your lives together. Our prayer's hopefully, will add to your strength to move forward knowing that Joe is at peace and once more united with those that have gone on before.
