

Kevin Elliott Kagle

November 30, 1971 - October 6, 2012

Kevin Elliott Kagle, of Richland Ranchettes (Cochise, AZ) died October 6, 2012 at the age of 40. He was born in Concordia, Kansas on November 30, 1971 to Harold and Bette MacDougall Kagle. Kevin was a graduate of North Torrance High School in Torrance, California and received an Associates Degree in Science from Northridge Community College. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, loved to play pool, and was a real handyman in the community and was always willing to lend a hand. Kevin was a peaceful man and will be sorely missed. He had been a member of the Cochise Stronghold Lions Club and volunteered his time at the Fourth of July fireworks. Kevin also was the operations manager for Equine Oxy-Kick a natural feed supplement. Survivors include his son Trey Albert Kagle-Hardy of Richland Ranchettes, his parents Bette (Richard) Kagle-Shea of Richland Ranchettes and Harold (Linda) Kagle of Clyde, Kansas and his brother Glenn (Jaime) Kagle of Clyde, Kansas. A heartfelt thanks to all Kevin's Aunts, Uncles, friends and family who were so supportive at this time. A Celebration of Kevin's life will be Sunday, October 14, 2012. Friends and family may start gathering at 1:00 P.M. at Art and Denise's home. Contributions may be made to a trust fund for Kevin's son, Trey Kagle-Hardy, at the Great Western Bank in Sunsites, AZ. The family would like to thank Art and Denise for the beautiful celebration of Kevin's life at their home. On line condolences may be extended to the family at www.westlawnchapelmortuary.com Cremation entrusted to Westlawn Chapel, Mortuary and Crematory of Willcox, Arizona.
