“ I remember when I was a little girl, walking over to my cousins house to visit and Aunt Beulah would say Potsy, "you better get these boys! (Talking about Larry and David). They were so Onry!! They were also so sweet to me. Many years later visiting Cheryl & Larry, He was still just as sweet! I always thought of him as a gentle giant, a hard worker who loved his family and God. Sending my love to Cheryl and the Girls

I so enjoyed Larry Harris, he was a wonderful friend and I loved servicing his & Cheryl's vehicles . Listening to all the hunting trips. When we restored the Depot his crew installed the wooden shingles on the roof, no one else wanted the job . R.I.P. Brother Larry
