

Lawana Milhoan

December 22, 1929 - September 27, 2019

Lawana "Wannie" Milhoan of Benson/Pomerene, Arizona passed away on September 27, 2019 at the age of 89.

Lawana was born December 22, 1929 in Hereford, Texas to Homer and Zella Boydston Gwyn. She married Homer L. Milhoan on December 31, 1950 in Amarillo, Texas. They moved to Colorado in 1951 where they homesteaded property above the community of McPhee near Dolores. Lawana continued the farming and ranching operation following the death of her husband Homer in 1964.

In 1995 Lawana and son Rob, moved to Tucson and later to the Benson area. She enjoyed a unique landscaping talent and employed a combination of antiques and unique rock collections which were greatly admired by her visitors.

Lawana is survived by her daughter Cherry Hutson and husband Michael, grandsons Kelly and Steven, and a granddaughter Carrie Wadlinger and great-granddaughter Allyson Wadlinger, all of the Tucson area. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Marieta Gwyn of Wildorado, Texas and a large extended family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Homer, son Rob, sister

Lazelle Fowler, and her brothers Jimmie and Roy Gwyn.

Memorial services will be held at Palo Duro Cemetery in Wildorado, Texas at a later date. The family requests that memorial donations be made to CWLJ Hospice, PO Box 115, Willcox, Arizona 85644.
