“ Leilani was a student of mine in Kindergarten and again in 3rd grade, and I knew her as kind and caring, always helping and including the other students, and always eager to do anything to help me. She was fascinated with my earrings, and always had to see what I was wearing that day as they stood in line getting a drink after recess

Leilani did not have an easy life, but strived to better her life for herself and her son Liam, whom she adored and was so proud of. When she began a nursing program, she called me to let me know, and I told her how very proud I was of her. I think she was also very proud of herself!

I am deeply saddened to hear of Leilani's death, and offer my heart and prayers to her son Liam, and her family.

I will not forget Leilani!
